UNCLE SAM IN NUMISMATICS

By

NATHAN N. EGLIT, A.N.A. No. 11713

ON ALMOST any day of the week an American in nearly any part of the country can reach for his daily newspaper, turn to its daily cartoon, and find the image of Uncle Sam faced with some domestic or foreign situation. He will find Uncle beset from all corners of the globe, it would seem, with a more burdensome weight than Atlas ever had to bear. Our American cartoonists and artists have not been much kinder to him than foreign caricaturists, but between them Uncle Sam has been developed as the mythical representation of the United States. This image was formulated in the middle years of the republic, mostly through the influence of Thomas Nast, the Harper's Weekly caricaturist of the Civil War and Reconstruction periods.

Uncle Sam did not, however, burst forth full blown under the pen of Nast. Prior to his acceptance as a national symbol as developed by Nast, Uncle Sam had already been pictured to a limited extent in the broadsides of the Jacksonian period. At that time he was a long, lanky figure that resembled the country cousin of the backwoods. Pictured leaning against a tree while whittling a stick, he reflected the powerful influence of the frontier on American thought. Comparison with caricatures of Andrew Jackson, who largely reflected the frontier and the newly settled West, politically and socially, with those of the Uncle Sam broadsides, gives one the impression that Jackson had a large influence on the molding of this mythical figure.

But Uncle Sam had a competitor as a personification of young America. Brother Jonathan was the most widely used personification of America before the Civil War. This was largely due to the two famous cartoonists associated with the London Punch, John Leech and John Tenniel. Brother Jonathan was their favorite characterization of America, as was their own John Bull as a representation of England. One of the earliest books on these characters, The Diverting History of John Bull and Brother Jonathan, was written in 1812 by James K. Paulding, an American writer. Cartoons on John Bull and Brother Nathan N. Eglit, Chicago, Ill., has written a number of articles for this and other numismatic publications. An attorney, it is only to be expected that he would be a collector of political medals, tokens and other items in that field.

Jonathan appeared in Paulding's third edition of 1827.

An early broadside on which they appeared was in 1813 after Perry's victory over the English on Lake Erie. Brother Jonathan was pictured as tall, thin and gangling with striped pants and high hat. In later picturizations he appeared whittling on a stick of wood. The Brother Jonathan legend is said to have originated during the Revolutionary War. Washington depended largely on the practical sense of Governor John Trumbull of Connecticut, and whenever in difficulty Washington and distribution of broadsides and lithographs as separate and distinct issues.

The dissemination of caricature drawings as part of a regularly published newspaper or magazine was largely brought about by the London Punch, which circulated in the United States. Tenniel and Leech thus developed Brother Jonathan through this vehicle.

In 1858 a token (Fig. 1) was issued by George H. Lovett, the New York die sinker, to commemorate the laying of the first Atlantic cable which connected the United States with England. This token was issued in white metal, brass and copper, and 31 mm. in size. The obverse shows John Bull standing at the left holding out his hand in greeting to Brother Jonathan on the right. The legend around the edge reads: HOW ARE YOU JONATHAN? at the left, and to the right: PURTY WELL OLD FELLER, HEOW'S YERSELF. On the reverse is the legend: ATLANTIC TELEGRAPH SUCCESSFULLY LAID 5TH OF AUGUST 1858. This same obverse was muled by Lovett with his store card, and is listed in silver, copper, brass and white metal.²

Another token on which Brother Jonathan is represented shows him as clean shaven, and wearing a high, broad brimmed hat and a star spangled shirt. To right and left of this portrait are the words I AM READY and below, the date 1861. This token appears with two reverse designs. The first reverse has the legend THE UNION MUST AND SHALL BE PRESERVED in a circle of stars while the other has an all-seeing eye and rays with THE UNION MUST AND SHALL BE PRESERVED around it. This token was issued by John D. Lovett of New York in silver, copper, brass and white metal, size 32 mm.³

Uncle Sam during this period was developing a personality of his own in the broadsides and lithographs that survive. His image finally pushed Brother Jonathan into the would say "We must consult Brother Jonathan." The phrase became a byword in the army and from there spread throughout the country after the war. One authority on idiomatic phrases defines Brother Jonathan as "The people of the United States or the personification of their government."¹

The newspapers of the young republic did not then contain cartoons as we understand them. In that period the dissemination of caricature was through the publication background because he was more of a creation of native American folklore.

The Uncle Sam legend started during the War of 1812. The prototype of Uncle Sam is said to have been a real person, one Samuel Wilson of Troy, New York. During that war, Wilson provided and packed beef and pork on contract to the Army. He stamped the cases with the initials U. S., and since he was known as Uncle Sam Wilson in that area, everybody alluded to the supplies as Uncle Sam's. This allusion is said to have started with a use of broadsides in the bitter anti-Jackson political battles, and the wider dissemination of such literature by the improvement of communications as a result of the canal system and the railroads.

Among the many influences wrought by Abraham Lincoln on the history of the Republic was the effect he had on the Uncle Sam symbol. Prior to the Civil War this character, as well as Brother Jonathan, was beardless. During the war, in many of the cartoons in Punch and in the northern and southern newspapers, Lincoln was facetious fellow who worked for Wilson, and then spread among his fellow workmen and from them into the army. This attribution of the origin of the legend was published in a newspaper almost contemporaneously with the event, the New York Gazette of May 12, 1830. The earliest known reference to Uncle Sam is a broadside published in the Spring of 1813.⁴ This version of the origin of Uncle Sam is not unanimously accepted, however, as other historical authorities claim its actual origin is unknown.⁵

During the Jacksonian period in the 1830s and 1840s the image grew into larger proportions. This was largely due to the increase of the depicted with striped pants, stars on his vest and tall broad brimmed hat. Abraham Lincoln with a beard merged with that of a bearded Uncle Sam. Brother Jonathan, meantime, had faded. Credit for the largest part in this change of characterization is due to Thomas Nast. (Nast is also given credit for the formulation and adoption of the political symbols of the donkey for the Democrats, and the elephant for the Republicans.)

Uncle Sam had taken so solid a foothold during the war that even Lincoln in his correspondence to J. C. Conkling, the New York political leader, stated in analyzing the campaigns of 1863, "Nor must Uncle Sam's web feet be forgotten. At all watery margins they have been present."⁶

In the generation following the Civil War due to Nast's influence and, later in the century because of Keppler and Opper of Puck's Weekly, this mythological concept grew. From the country bumpkin picturization of Brother Jonathan with the bell crowned hat, and from the puzzled character at wits end never at peace with the world, the image became mature and confident. Although appearing in caricature very often beset with problems, he gave the appearance now of capability and shrewdness. Since the 1870s, Americans have accepted him enthusiastically. Identification with

Uncle Sam fitted the American character. It seemed that Uncle Sam fitted the national tradition of independence and freedom from authority.

By the turn of the century Uncle Sam emerged pictorially as a resolute fighter which reflected the new foreign outlook that was one of the results of the Spanish-American War. Annexation of Hawaii, the Philippines and Puerto Rico, and the building of the Panama Canal made Uncle Sam a powerful figure not to be trifled with. He figured more and more in the presidential campaigns. In the 1904 campaign one of the most famous political characterizations was Homer Davenport's cartoon showing Uncle Sam with his arm on Theodore Roosevelt's shoulder and saying, "He's good enough for me."

In 1915, the first and only official medal (Fig. 2) with Uncle Sam as the main design was issued in connection with the Panama-California Exposition in San Diego. On the obverse is a tall resolute figure of Uncle Sam with a pick on his right shoulder, and a shovel in his left hand. Behind him is a map of the Americas and the legend in a band around the edge: PANAMA CALIFORNIA EXPOSITION SAN DIEGO 1915. This

¹Kennedy, 86, 87, 88 and 89

medal was struck in silver and gilt bronze for that year. Similar medals were issued with the date 1916 in the following year. It was designed by Clifford K. Berryman and engraved by Charles E. Barber, and was struck at the U. S. Mint exhibit at the exposition.⁷ This medal, commonly referred to as a "so-called dollar," the Atlantic Cable tokens, the Lovett store cards and the political Civil War token aforementioned, are the only native metallic evidence that refer to this national character. In the presidential campaign of 1940, a tin campaign button was issued in opposition to F. D. R.'s third term candidacy. On this button Uncle Sam is shown with thumbs down and the legend NO THIRD TERM.

During World War I he appears belligerent and warlike in the famous recruiting poster of 1917, which depicts him pointing his finger at the viewer with the inscription "I Want You for U.S. Army." This poster by James Montgomery Flagg is probably the best known and most widely distributed picture of Uncle Sam. But this national characterization was pictured quite differently by the Germans on medals issued by Karl Goetz during World War I.

The medals of Karl Goetz are among the most bitterly satirical of any known. They are a product of a national mythology that grew out of the mystical German soul that was egged on to a disastrous policy of destruction by Prussian militarism. The most famous Goetz medal was the one issued to commemorate the sinking of the Lusitania. The most bitter of his medals were directed towards Woodrow Wilson and his "fourteen points," and the Versailles Peace Treaty. Uncle Sam appears on several of these satirical medals.

German, states AMERIKAS NEUTRALES HANDELN (America's Neutral Dealings).

An even more bitter portrayal by Goetz was the medal he issued in 1919 after the blockade of Germany was lifted on July 12, 1919. The reverse shows a starving German seated on the ground with Uncle Sam standing above him holding a placard which purports to be a price list of foodstuffs for sale to the German, Michel, at outrageous prices. The legend in German reads, DER BARMERZIGE SAMARITEN.⁸ Cast iron, 57 mm.

A third Goetz medal depicts Uncle Sam seated in a square rigged sailing ship holding the steering gear and a man in the water clutching a life buoy with the inscription AMERIKA. Legend on the obverse: PEACE TERMS.⁹ Bronze, 56 mm.

A fourth Goetz medal called "The Convoy," shows Uncle Sam again, walking along a shore with a representative of Holland and refers to the agreement by the Dutch with the Allies to control goods exported to Germany.¹⁰

Similar satirical representations of Uncle Sam appear on silk notgeld (Fig. 4) that was produced in Germany. These items were made as souvenirs for collectors rather than to satisfy the need for circulating currency, as the country was already more than saturated with its inflated paper money.

⁸See Nationalistic Myths in the Weimer Republic for the finest study of the satirical medals by Goetz.

⁹Listed in National Maritime Museum Catalog No. U. Germany, Great War, No. 19

¹⁰*Supra*, No. 20

During the 1870s and 1880s, a new political alignment resulted in the Greenback Labor Party which favored the maintenance of a paper currency by the government. It not only was against the resumption of payments in gold and retirement of the greenbacks that had been authorized during the Civil War, but favored a large increase in authorized issues. This party put its first presidential candidate, Peter Cooper, in the field in 1876. Thereafter, in 1880 and 1884, it nominated presidential tickets. During these turbulent campaigns in which the greenback issue was an important political football, propaganda in the form of satirical paper scrip was issued by adherents for and against the proposition. This scrip simulated the appearance of the current paper money both in size and color. However, the legends and designs that appeared on them were satirical in content.

During the 1880 campaign two issues of this scrip appeared on which Uncle Sam formed the main theme of the design. One issue, (Fig. 5) called "Absolute Money," shows Uncle Sam at right turning out money in volume from a money making machine, which is labeled U. S. Mint. Another issue shows Uncle Sam at a money making machine to the left, and also at the right holding out empty pockets.¹¹ Both of these satirical notes are in $1,000.00 denominations, green in color and the size of the then circulating large greenbacks.

An odd piece (Fig. 6) came to the attention of the writer recently through the kindness of a dealer friend. This piece is uniface and was issued during World War II. Uncle Sam appears on obverse facing the viewer with the legend above him reading UNITED WE STAND

FOR DEMOCRACY and the date 1945 below. The reverse is, of course, blank. The metal is steel and the size 38 mm. It apparently is a trial piece, and had no other significance in meaning than as a patriotic souvenir. This riddle was solved a little later when the same dealer came through with a silver money clip of the same piece.

The various numismatic items discussed here are all that the writer has been able to locate with Uncle Sam as the main theme. Of them all, the only officially issued piece is the Panama-California medal of 1915. All others mentioned are private issues. Although foreign newspapers and magazines are replete with references to Uncle Sam, especially in caricature or satire, no medals of Uncle Sam have been issued abroad except the private propaganda medals of Karl Goetz in Germany, which have been described.

The dearth of numismatic evidence of this national personification of the United States may be partly attributed to a similar dearth of published literature on the subject. Only one full length book on Uncle Sam has so far been published.¹² There is a scattering of monographs and reports of historical societies. References on the subject are scattered throughout many published works on various historical or political themes but only in passing. The bulk of the Uncle Sam mythology seems to be concentrated in the newspaper files and cartoon histories of the last one hundred years. Since Uncle Sam really developed an individuality and stature during the Civil War under Thomas Nast's pen, it may well be appropriate to observe this year as the centenary of his emergence as a national personification.

Pres. Dodson, Mint Officials Meet

During the October convention of the Middle Atlantic Numismatic Association in Washington, D. C., A.N.A. President O. H. Dodson held an informal luncheon conference with William Brett, Director of the Mint. Leland Howard, Assistant Director of the Mint, and C. C. Schroyer, A.N.A. First Vice President, also attended the meeting.

The purpose was to discuss areas in which the A.N.A. could more effectively cooperate with those agencies of the Federal Government responsible for enforcing Federal law and regulations applicable to coinage and to discuss areas in which existing regulations could be clarified for the mutual benefit and protection of the coin collector and the Federal enforcement agencies.

President Dodson proposed that a committee of qualified numismatists be appointed from the A.N.A. membership to study this problem and to forward its recommendations to the A.N.A. Executive Board. After further study and approval of the Executive Board, these recommendations would then be forwarded to the Director of the Mint for study and such action as appeared to be feasible. Mr. Brett expressed warm interest in this proposal and stated that he would welcome the opportunity to study the recommendations of such a committee.

The President has requested the A.N.A. Executive Board to recommend members for appointment to this important committee. The membership will be kept informed of further developments on this subject in which so many collectors are deeply interested.

We hear rumors of a new coin collector publication now in the making in the deep south.

A RARE RUBLE

By

E. SZPAKOWSKI

THE GRAND Duke Constantine Pavlovitch was the second son of Tsar Paul I of Russia, and younger brother of Tsar Alexander I. In his father's reign he took part in the Swiss campaign of 1799 under Suvorov. He also fought in the Battle of Austerlitz and accompanied his brother to the Congress of Vienna in 1815. Later he was the Tsar's Vice Regent in Poland.

Majesty, Constantine Pavlovitch" as well as a number of portraits of the new Emperor, which were distributed by special messengers to all governmental offices.

The Minister of Finance, Count Kankrin, dispatched a young officer, Saburov, to the Grand Duke Constantine in Warsaw, with a special mission of carrying a box of newly minted silver rubles bearing the Emperor Alexander I died in Taganrog. On receiving the news of his death in St. Petersburg, the august members of the Imperial family, the government Council, the ministers, etc., assembled in the Winter Palace. There, the Grand Duke Nikolai Pavlovitch followed by others present, including the heads of regiments of the Imperial Guards, swore allegiance to the new Emperor, Constantine I. This oath was officially published in all newspapers on November 29, 1825. All government departments rapidly prepared blank forms with the heading "By order of His Imperial

Grand Duke's effigy for approval before the rest of the coins were minted. The refusal of the Grand Duke to accept either the coins or the title of Emperor of all Russia, took everyone by surprise. His Highness would give only one answer: "His Imperial Highness considers any answer unnecessary for reasons which must be well known at St. Petersburg and at the Court."

It was known, by certain persons at Court, about the abdication of the Grand Duke. Even while his older brother was alive, documentary proof was contained in an envelope with the following inscription in Alexander I's own handwriting: "To be kept until my demand, or in case of my demise to be opened, before any other action of the Supreme Council." This envelope was kept in the Government Council and similar envelopes were kept in Senate, the Holy Synod and in the Assumption cathedral in Moscow.

When this envelope was opened, it was found to contain a manifesto dated August 16, 1823, signed by Alexander I, which stated that the Grand Duke Constantine had voluntarily abdicated any right to succession, thus making the successor the next in line. That was the younger brother of Constantine, namely Nicholas (later Nicholas I). The envelope also contained a letter from Constantine dated January 14, 1822, in which the Grand Duke wrote to Alexander I about his abdication in the following terms: "Not feeling in myself those gifts, the courage or the spirit that would enable me to ascend to the position to which I am entitled by birthright, I dare beg of Your Majesty to transfer this right to the one to whom it belongs after me."

The main reason for the abdication was as follows: On arriving in Warsaw, Constantine was so taken by the beauty of a young untitled girl, Johanna Grudzinska, that he decided to marry her. To achieve this, he had to obtain first the permission of his royal brother, Alexander I, so that he (Constantine) could divorce his wife, Princess Anne of Saxe-Cobourg. (This brings to mind how another King also gave up his throne and abdicated in favor of the woman of his choice. He was the English King Edward VIII.)

Alexander I sent his brother the following reply: "As future Emperor of all Russia you can choose bride of royal blood only. The common Polish girl can never become a Russian Emporess. I can only allow you to marry her if you will renounce your right to succession."

In March, 1820 Constantine divorced his wife and in May of the same year married Johanna. The Emperor Alexander I then gave Johanna the title of Duchess Lovich.

After prolonged arguments with his mother and his brother Nicholas, Constantine won his point and his abdication was accepted. Meanwhile the Decembrists tried unsuccessfully to introduce constitutional monarchy in Russia.

The Minister of Finance, Count Kankrin, thought "The people must realize they have a new Tsar. The best way to achieve this is to issue as soon as possible the new coins with his effigy. The molds for the new coins have already been manufactured by Jakob Reichel, Head of the Mint." On the face of the coin was the profile of Constantine and an inscription on the edge, from left to right, "B. M. Constantine I, Emperor and Autocrat of All Russia." Under the portrait was the date 1825. On the reverse, in laurel wreath, was the Imperial eagle surmounted with three crowns, around the wreath was the inscription "Pure silver 4 zolotnika 21 doli" and underneath "ruble." Under the eagle was stamped "SPB" (Saint Petersburg). When the abdication was made known publicly the molds, drawings and actual specimen rubles were withdrawn and locked in the ministry.

3. Newspaper notice of November 29, 1825, concerning the swearing of allegiance to Emperor Constantine I.

The Decembrist uprising (December 14, 1825) had a deep effect on Emperor Nicholas I. The name of the heir apparent, Constantine, was linked with the word "Constitution." Soldiers were shouting "Long live Constantine and the Constitution." For this reason, Nicholas I ordered the destruction of everything that would serve as reminder of the brief reign of Constantine I.

The coins, unlike the molds, drawings and official pictures of Constantine, were not destroyed, and came to notice in 1879 when Grand Duke George Mikhailovitch asked Alexander II for a Constantine ruble for his collection. In a special box in the Ministry were found six rubles. The first was given to Grand Duke George Mikhailovitch, another was placed in a small numismatic collection of Tsar Alexander II, the third was placed in the Imperial Hermitage, the fourth was given to the Tsar's son, Sergius, and the fifth to Prince Alexander of Hesse.

Sources state that the six rubles sent to Warsaw were destroyed in the Polish insurrection of 1830 and Minister Kankrin and Head of Mint Reichel had another two coins. Thus were minted only thirteen coins. The Constantine rubles are the rarest Russian coins.

One ruble coin was passed by Reichel to Shubert, a numismatist, who described it in a catalog in 1858. Shubert's entire collection was later purchased by Count Tolstoi, who was told that the Constantine ruble was bought in a gaming house — a lie to protect Reichel. Besides being mentioned by Shubert in his 1858 catalog, a German numismatist, Baron Koene, mentioned it in Berliner Blaetter fur Münz Siegel und Wapenkunde in 1866. In 1873, Count Troubetzkoi published a special brochure in Marseilles, the Ruble de Constantine Cesarewitch grand Duc de Russie (only forty copies). In 1904 Antoshevski also published brochure, Ruble Constantine I (only 200 copies). In the period 1880-93 no less than five articles by various authors have been printed in Russian magazines. Before the first World War from 3,000 to 10,000 gold rubles were offered for the coins, yet the coins never changed hands as owners of the collections containing them would never part with their prized possession. No wonder, besides the numismatic interest, there is a whole page of history concealed behind this coin. In 1913 at the sale of the Count Tolstoi collection this coin was sold for 11,250 gold marks.

Of late, it is known that one of these coins is in the United States, another is in Italy and a third is in Australia.

Reverse: Within inner circle, value 50 puls; Legend on top in outer circle "Afghanistan," in the lower part: "Trusting in Allah Muhammed Zahir Shah." The reverse differs from 1952 issue, where the value was completely written out. Plain edge.

CHINESE TURKESTAN

Don't become an addict to the 1960 cent craze; save your sanity. Latest coins to become involved in the "fly speck picker out of pepper" hunt for small, medium, and large date cents, misplaced mint marks, "fractured skull" and "chip on the shoulder" Lincolns etc., are the dimes and five cent pieces of 1960. You'll save yourself money and annoyance by abstaining.—EGB

NOTES FROM THE LIBRARIAN

Lloyd B. Gettys has given us (L-11) Medallic History of the United States, 1776-1876, two vols. They are beautifully bound and well illustrated. The medals described herein number eighty-six and cover the first hundred years of our country's medallic history. Most of these medals were struck by order of Congress in honor of citizens of the United States. Seventeen belong to the period of the Revolution, twenty-seven to the War of 1812-15, four to the Mexican War, and two to the Civil War. Five were voted to foreigners. Volume II contains 170 marvelous etchings by Jules Jacquemart.

The Whitman Publishing Company has given us (A-7) Selections From the Numismatist: U. S. Coins. We quote, in part, from the forword of this volume, by President Oscar H. Dodson. "The current interest in coinage, sweeping and unchecked, has made this volume a necessity. A devoted committee of numismatic scholars gave freely of their time to cull from the past volumes of The Numismatist the best, the authoritative, the significant. These articles span three quarters of a century of American numismatic research. The American Numismatic Association proudly sponsors this publication."

Tom Mowery has donated a copy of (M-27) A Guide Book of English Coins, 8 pp. 1960. Here is a first. Hardly a book, just mimeo, but it offers to the date collector of English coins, the information he is looking for: Complete listing of all dates and mint marks of English coins for the last hundred years. Prices are for coins in average circulated condition. It should also be of interest to the dealer who puts many English coins in his "junk box."

We could use donations of Numismatists and Scrapbooks. All proceeds from the sale of back copies go into the library fund for the purchase of new books and duplicates of popular books. We still have many interesting reprints listed on the back cover of your library catalog.

I wish to thank the following for donations to the library: Tom Mowery, John E. Maher, Whitman Publishing Co., Phillip S. Johnson, Henry B. Stowers, Lloyd B. Gettys and Harriet Goode of the Detroit Public Library. — JOHN J. GABARRON

The Osage Indians of Oklahoma are the richest tribe in the world per capita

OSAGE INDIAN MEDALS

By

ELSTON G. BRADFIELD, LM 266

IN The Golden Book of the Osages by R. G. Fister and George V. Labadie, the last page of this unique 300 page volume is a plastic case 8¼" by 10½" which contains the complete set of Osage portrait medals described herein. The book, which is not a complete history of the Osage tribe, is limited to certain basic data beginning at the turn of the century. The medals portray Paw-huska, last hereditary Chief of the Osages (1870), the present Principal Chief, Assistant Chief and members of the Osage Tribal Council, including the Superintendent of the Osage Agency, a full blooded Navajo Indian. These miniature portraits in metal are intended by the authors as a plain and practical symbolism commemorating the Osage Tribe of the last half century as well as its present leaders.

Many American Indian tribes in the nineteenth century were victims of the wave of western movement which disregarded their use rights to the land. Helpless before this pressure, through treaties the tribes ceded vast areas one after the other to the United States and soon found themselves restricted to small areas called reservations, far from their natural habitats.

The Osages, thought to be a branch or descendants of the Siouan Tribe, may have emigrated from the Allegheny and Monongahela valleys. Pere Marquette found them living along the Osage River in what is now the state of Missouri in 1673. They were still there in 1764 when Auguste Chouteau established St. Louis. Later they moved to western Missouri and in 1852 settled on a reservation set apart for them in what is now southern Kansas. But not for long, for these lands also were wanted by the pioneers and in 1865 their sale with the understanding that the proceeds would be used to purchase other lands was agreed to by the Osages. In 1871 the Tribe moved to what is now Washington County, Oklahoma. This time, however, they found themselves in Cherokee territory and the next year moved on to Pawhuska, Okla., where the Agency is now located. Although this, too, was in Cherokee territory, the Cherokees sold 1,470,559 acres to the Osages at approximately 70¢ an acre.

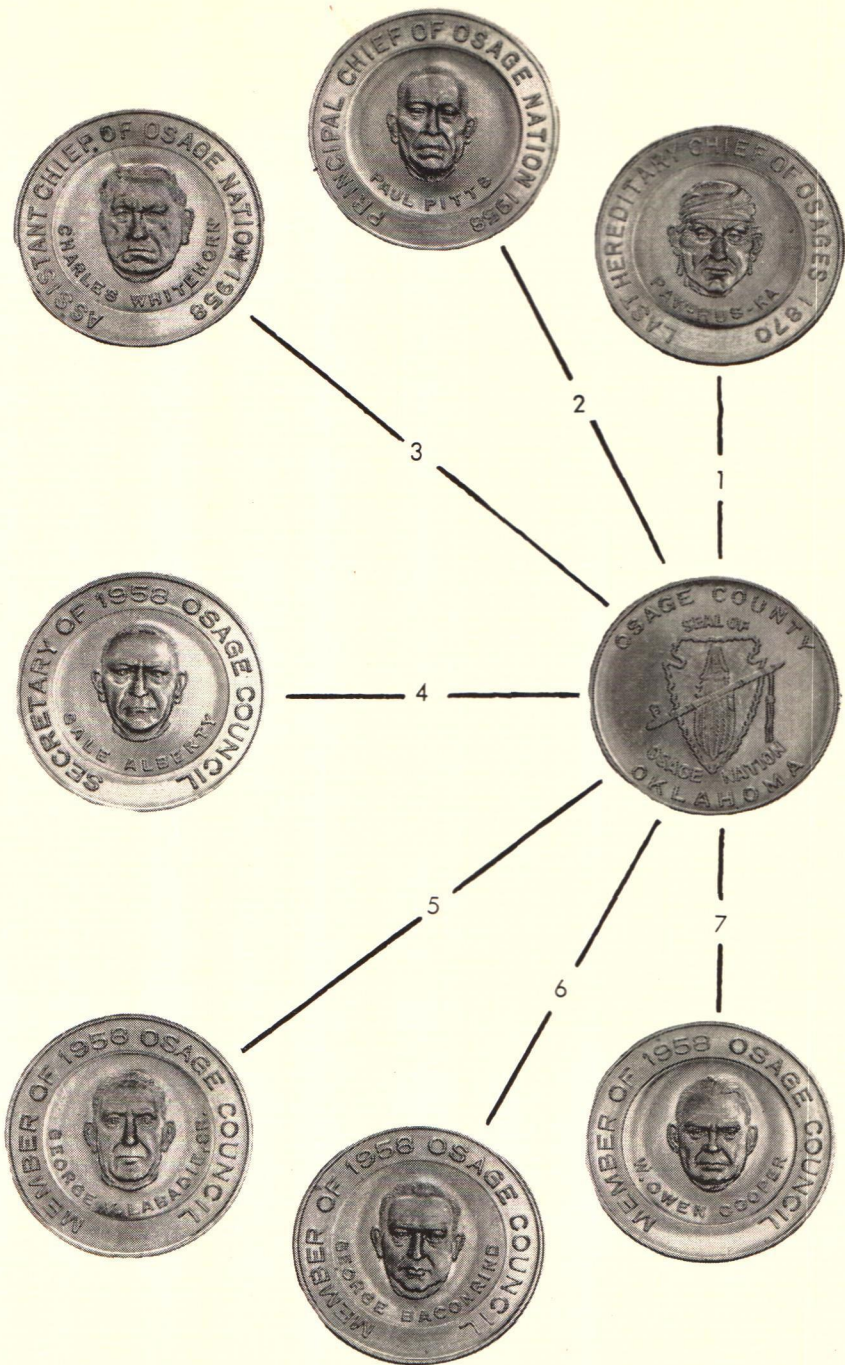

It was this area that was to produce fabulous wealth for the Osage Indians. The first oil producing well was completed in 1897 but accelerated development did not start until 1916. More than 750,000,000 barrels of oil have been produced since with revenues to the Osages of more than $400,000,000 in bonus and royalty payments.

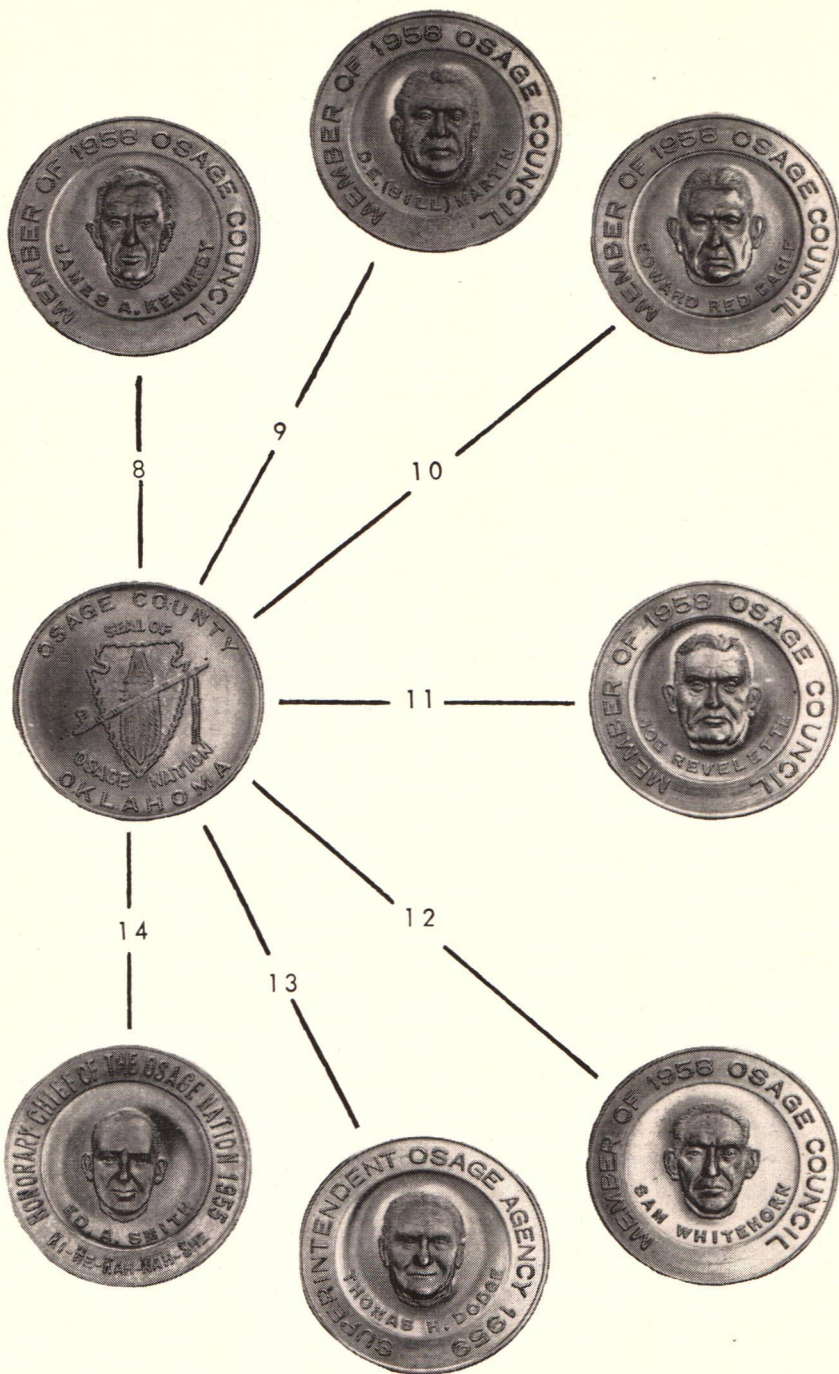

The Osage Tribal Councils and individual leaders of the Tribe played an important part in these developments under the supervision of the U. S. Bureau of Indian Affairs and the Department of the Interior. The Council wisely follows the state and federal oil conservation and proration laws so that oil production (currently 75,000 barrels a day) may continue and benefit generations of Osages yet to come.

The Portraits

The individuals whose portraits are on the medals are as follows:

Paw-Hus-Ka, Last Hereditary Chief of the Osages, 1870
Paul Pitts, Principal Chief of the Osage Nation

Charles Whitehorn, Assistant Chief of the Osage Nation
 Gale Alberty, Secretary of 1958 Osage Council
 George V. Labadie, Sr., Member of 1958 Osage Council
 George Baconrind, Member of 1958 Osage Council
 W. Owen Cooper, Member of 1958 Osage Council
 James A. Kennedy, Member of 1958 Osage Council
 D. E. (Bill) Martin, Member of 1958 Osage Council
 Edward Red Eagle, Member of 1958 Osage Council
 Joe Revelette, Member of 1958 Osage Council
 Sam Whitehorn, Member of 1958 Osage Council
 Thomas H. Dodge, Superintendent, Osage Agency, 1959

Seal of the Osage Nation

The seal of the Osage Nation has superimposed on a circular field of gold, an arrowhead of blue centered with a buckskin and eagle feather fan crossed by a symbolic pipe of peace. The gold field is symbolic of tribal prosperity; the arrowhead, when used in the arrow, was an instrument of the hunt and of war; the pipe became a symbol of peace since it was smoked at the time of treaty making to seal the pact between the Indian and the White man and to indicate peaceful and friendly relations between them. The eagle feather fan is a symbol of authority or high office in clan or Tribal affairs.

The Medals

All medals are Size 20 and are struck in goldline lacquer finish. A thousand medals of each of the fourteen described were struck. Medal No. 14 is included only in special editions of The Gold Book of the Osages.

The sculptor of the medals was Ferdinand Rebechini, who studied at the University of Illinois and received his B.A. in sculpture from the Chicago Art Institute in 1948. He worked on a series of large shrines for the Catholic Archdiocese in Chicago and has executed other religious pieces for various churches, the more notable being a set of Stations of the Cross for St. Francis Xavier Church in Kansas City, Mo. He is now working on a series for St. Simeon Church in Bellwood, Ill. Among his portraits is that of Cyrus B. De Vry, founder of the Lincoln Park Zoo in Chicago, which stands in the lion house of the zoo.

The medals were produced by Meyer & Wenthe, Inc., Chicago, Ill. John W. Meyer is president, Don A. Pardi, vice president in charge of production. Eric Ziegenhorn is the engraver and Eugene E. Sell, sales correspondent.

Paul Pitts, Principal Chief of the Osage Tribe, is a member of the Osage County Coin Club, founded by R. G. Fister, its first president. Fister was Superintendent of the Osages from 1954 through 1958. George V. Labadie, Sr., whose portrait appears on Medal No. 5, is co-author of The Golden Book of the Osages. All inquiries concerning the medals should be addressed to him at 1303 Leahy, Pawhuska, Okla.

Mint Sets of 1960 on Sale

Orders for uncirculated 1960 coins in sets only are now being accepted. Orders will be mailed January 1 in the sequence in which they are received. The coins will continue on sale until the supply is exhausted but not later than December 31, 1961.

The purchase price of $2.40 per set includes handling charges, postage and insurance. The price is the same whether the coins are purchased over the counter at the Treasury Department or mailed to any place in the United States and its possessions.

A set consists of a half dollar, quarter, dime, nickel, and cent, other than commemorative and proof coins, struck at the mints in Denver and Philadelphia during the year. Each set therefore contains ten coins with a face value of $1.82.

Orders from any single purchaser up to a maximum of eighty sets will be accepted. However, if the demand is so heavy that the supply appears in danger of exhaustion, the quantity furnished each applicant may be limited in an endeavor to make an equitable distribution of the available coins. Coin sets are not returnable in exchange for a cash refund.

Uncirculated coin sets contain coins which were minted for general circulation purposes. They are minted on high-speed presses, moved along conveyors, run through counting machines, and packed and shipped several thousand per bag. Although only the best uncirculated coins are used in the sets, the Treasury cannot guarantee to furnish coins that are entirely free from blemishes.

Mail orders should be addressed to the Treasurer of the United States, Cash Division (UC), Washington 25, D. C., accompanied by a remittance ($2.40 per set) in the form of a money order, certified personal or bank cashier's check payable to the order of the Treasurer of the United States. Please do not send cash.

Book Reviews

Standard Catalogue of Canadian Coins, Tokens, and Paper Money, by J. E. Charlton. Ninth Edition, 1961.

The new Charlton, which appeared October 1, maintains the high standard collectors have come to expect from the cataloger. It follows the new format first used in the 1960 edition, hard covers, text and illustrations adjoining the listing, and of a size that will fit handily into the pocket. One major change will be noted—the illustrations of the extensive token series are now almost wholly photographic. The photographer has done a very good job, but it is still an open question in the writer's mind whether the change is really for the better.

It is evident that a good deal of editorial work has been done on the text, and it is the more unfortunate that the erroneous "East Maine" still appears in the section on the Hudson's Bay Co. tokens, and the really remarkable note to T. Shingles' (Chief Engraver, Royal Canadian Mint) admirable rearrangement of the reverse of the fifty cent piece of 1959, stating that "In 1959 the design was changed to the coat of arms of Canada" when these have been in use for 23 years!

As might be expected in such an active and rising market, prices have undergone extensive revision in all sections of the catalog. Mint specimens of such pieces as the silver of 1875, the five and fifty cents of 1921, the two varieties of the 1891 small date cents, the 1893 ten cents with the round-topped "3", or the fifty cent pieces of 1890 and 1894 are now luxuries for the wealthy collector, even if he can find them, while the "dot" cent and ten cents of 1936-37 must remain unattainable for even the millionaire until the present holders of the three or four copies in private hands decide to put them on the market.

Despite that which is traditionally the sincerest form of flattery—imitation—the Charlton catalog remains the indispensable guide for most collectors in the field of British North America. This is scarcely surprising, for over the last decade the editor has undoubtedly handled a greater volume of such material than any dealer or collector in the numismatic field. — G. R. L. POTTER

British Columbia Centennial Medal, A Historical Record, by Allan Klenman, Victoria, British Columbia: privately published, limited edition of 100 copies, 1960, 39 pages, illustrated, $6.50.

Allan Klenman, who needs no introduction to the present generation of Canadian students of numismatics, states in the foreword to his wholly praiseworthy volume that the report serves to "place on record the general course of events that led up to the striking of the (British Columbia Centennial) medal, and some of the problems successfully encountered and overcome." The book does this, with the ultimate of good taste and artistic effectiveness. It is, in every way, a fitting climax to the efforts of a small group of West Coast numismatists who accomplished what few others would have had the foresight or the enthusiasm to attempt.

The Victoria Numismatic Society, as this volume and contemporary journals serve to record, caused to be designed by Thomas Humphrey Paget, the distinguished medallist, and struck by the Royal Mint, London, a commemorative medal portraying Sir James Douglas, first Governor of British Columbia, and marking the centennial of the founding of the colony, 1858-1958. Of the medal, twelve pieces were struck in eighteen carat gold, the first of which was presented to Her Royal Highness the Princess Margaret during her visit to Victoria in 1958, three hundred pieces in .925 standard silver, and 941 pieces in bronze, all with proof finish.

The centennial medal, a particularly splendid specimen of medallic art, will have a place of honor in cabinets in Canada and abroad, but its significance over the generations will be enhanced by Klenman's record of the events leading to and concerning its distribution. Illustrated is the formal presentation of the first gold medal to Her Royal Highness on behalf of the Society by the Mayor of Victoria.

For Allan Klenman, who was president of the Society during the centennial celebration, preparation of the report no doubt was a labor of love, and the selling price reflects the high cost of such limited publication. He and his associates in the Victoria Numismatic Society have every right to be well pleased, for the report can serve both as a model of such numismatic documentation and as a fitting conclusion to a remarkable and wholly successful numismatic undertaking.

Numismatic Vignettes

■ We hear much now-a-days about errors in minting coins. Pictured is the center vignette on a Bank of Louisiana, New Orleans, $20 note dated 22 May, 1862. It is slightly enlarged, the better to see that the engraver erred in not providing any means for the prancing team to pull the coach. Incidentally, this note is dated just three weeks after the Union forces took possession of New Orleans during the Civil War, and it is a "forced issue" note.

■ A notice on page 1467 in the October issue of The Numismatist brings to mind the inadequacy and clumsiness of the phrase "mint error" when referring to coins which are sometimes called "misstrikes" or "freaks." There is a simple word in the unabridged dictionary which, if commonly used, would solve this problem nicely, we believe. It is "brockage," and is defined briefly as "coin imperfectly minted." The word appears to be in use by European numismatists—in fact, we have a nice 1820 English shilling which a London dealer marked "brockage." Let's put this word to practical use.

■ Every collector should try to arrive at an answer to the following question as early in his numismatic life as possible. "Should I plan my collection to make sense or cents?"

Of course, he can plan to do both, but one principle or the other should—and probably will—predominate. The recent speculative craze in minor varieties of 1960 cents certainly didn't make "sense," although it may have made many "cents" profit to some.

■ We were intrigued by the title of a humorous talk given by William Fraser at a meeting of the Oregon Numismatic Society, and reported as "Mamma told me to collect Dimes instead of Nickels because they make more Cents." We have always liked the advice given to us in a serious vein by a well known philatelist and numismatist, whose collection makes both sense and cents, to "collect what others don't." Maybe his advice can't be followed literally, but a collector shouldn't feel bound to follow the crowd, nor fear to develop a carefully planned new concept.

■ The Metropolitan Philatelist calls attention to the fact that "The specimens of U. S. coins are rapidly appreciating in value . . . A dealer lately showed us an 1809 cent which he sold four years ago for two dollars and a half, and which he had now purchased at five dollars . . . Territorial gold is practically unattainable and, strange to say, the more prices advance the greater demand of amateurs."—The Numismatist, July, 1903.

■ No more cents are to be made by the mint at Philadelphia for at least a year unless a special order is issued from the Treasury at Washington . . . Between July 1, 1902, and June 1, 1903, 89,600,000 cents were coined.—The Numismatist, October, 1903. (By comparison, the eleven month's production, at both mints, ending June 1, 1960 was 1,921,042,000.)—Glenn S.

Club News

The first exhibit of the Fresno Numismatic Society at the Fresno District Fair attracted thousands of interested viewers. Many of these people, of all ages and from all walks of life, showed their interest by asking questions galore covering, in the aggregate, every phase of coin collecting. Most members of the Society were given the impression that very many more people are interested in numismatics than are on the rosters of the numismatic organizations. This poses the question, "How can we develop the latent interest in numismatics shown by part time collectors and accumulators?" How can we attract the future numismatists into organized numismatics. NOW?—EVERETT G. JEWETT, Pub. Chm.

(Editor's note: Without implying that nothing more can be done, we believe that National Coin Week exhibits, and publicized exhibits by local and regional clubs—open to the public without charge—are doing much to answer the above questions. To paraphrase an old saying, we believe in leading the horse to water but not in trying to force him to drink.)

The 75th "Diamond" meeting of Central California Coin Club was held October 17 with twenty-eight members present. We now have a roster of sixty. It was decided to attend the Coin Carnival in Los Gatos on November 27 to determine if we want to join it. Appreciation was expressed to the Club for the displays made by members at the opening of the new branch of Bank of America in Carmel. We instituted a new service to members in allowing them to set up a bourse table at meetings.—WARREN S. CLAUNCH, Sec.

The October 17 meeting of Santa Barbara Coin Club was held in the Carrillo Hotel with an attendance of sixty-eight. Total membership an all-time high of eighty-six. Edith Davis accepted entries in the "Name the Newsletter" contest, by which we are trying to get an original catchy name for the Club's monthly newsletter. Harry Kaplun presented the Medallic Art Company's film on the making of medals which we found of special interest. It was suggested that our use of a revolving blackboard during auctions might be found useful to other clubs. This blackboard is placed on a table in view of all bidders. A member stands behind the board and writes the next lot to be sold on the back in large letters. When the lot comes up, the board is turned around so the bidders can see it and, while the lot is being sold, the member writes the next lot on the back. We have found that this system saves the auctioneer's time and helps much to avoid misunderstandings and confusion as to which lot is being sold. Exhibits were presented by Harold Porter and Ray Bower, and by junior member John Todd.—GWEN SENTIS, Sec.

The Bergen County Coin Club will hold its first annual Coin Show on December 3 at the Bergen Mall Auditorium on Route 4 at Forest Ave., Paramus, N.J. The doors open for registration at 9:00 a.m. and the two auction sessions begin at 3:00 and 7:00 p.m. Awards will be

Sixty-eight were present at the October 6 meeting of Vancouver (B. C.) Coin Club at the Kerrisdale Community Centre. Visitors included Bill and Mrs. Bales from Vancouver, Wash., who were welcomed as were six new members. William E. Ireland, Provincial Librarian and Archivist at Victoria, requested copies of all of our bulletins. Les Copan reported on the proposed purchase of a "Gestetner" and approval was given for this and the auctioning of our present machine at the next meeting. We were pleased with Robert Eveleigh's report that 205 British Columbians are members of C.N.A. Study is still being given to the advisability of incorporating our Club under the Societies' Act. Ken Hodgson showed colored slides featuring the Hudson Bay Company tokens, with narration by Tom Robinson. This was a most interesting viewing of the slides for which tokens were supplied through the courtesy of Leslie C. Hill, F.R.N.S. Larry Gingras reported that there are still some wooden dollars available. — C. B. MARSHALL, Pub. Rep.

The fifth anniversary banquet of Winona Coin Club was held in the V. F. W. Club, Winona, Minn., on October 22. Following the banquet and a numismatic address by Arthur F. Giere, awards were presented and the election of 1960-

The Northwest Coin Club held its October 19 meeting in the Midway YMCA, St. Paul, under the guidance of re-elected Paul Breault, president; Gerhard Knudson, vice president; Albert Koza, secretary-treasurer; and Elmer Tupper, historian. These officers and General Chairman Paul Olson, and most of the other members, will be occupied the next few months with planning the Central States Numismatic Society convention, which this Club will host next April 28-30. The program for the October meeting was conducted by Tom Mowery, who displayed and discussed English coins, using his new English coin catalog. Copies have been donated to the A.N.A. and local libraries. — ALBERT R. KOZA, Sec.-Treas.

The San Gabriel Valley Coin Club held its 114th meeting in the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel in Pasadena, with 76 in attendance. Guest speaker Peter B. Payne, well known numismatist, discussed the development of primitive monies in Africa and the islands. As always, he made an instructive as well as entertaining talk. Bill Fisher's pet desire is becoming a reality at long last with the discussion and formulation of plans for "Boy Scout Night" to be held soon. Among the interesting exhibits were: a 1793 half cent by Ward Alcorn; $5 National Bank note of Middleton, Conn., by Durrell Smith; 1955 double strike cent by Pat Kelly; 1859 over 8 Canadian cent by Charles Poe; proof and unc. Indian head cent set by Frank McPeak; 1877 trade dollar by Jack Williams; and a 1799 dollar with 8 stars by Newton Sanders — ETHEL R. STONE, Corr. Sec.

The fall convention of Texas Numismatic Association, hosted by the Fort Worth Coin Club, closed Sunday evening after three days of successful bourse, auction and exhibit which began October 14 in the Texas Hotel. Some of the greatest rarities in the country were exhibited, including the 1822 half eagle, 1804 dollar, 1838-O half dollar and 1913 liberty head 5c. First prizes for exhibits were awarded to the following: Carlton Bush for his specialized U. S.; Amon Carter, Jr., for his outstanding collection of U. S. and Canadian paper money; Mrs. O. R. Huff for a U. S. type collection; Roy Jordan for an exhibit of foreign coins; and Amon Carter, Jr., for his U. S. rarities as the most popular exhibit. Seventy-eight dealers from all parts of the country conducted a very active bourse, and the auction was well attended, being highlighted by the sale of a 1943 bronze cent at $700. The Sunday morning brunch was enlivened by a talk by Rear Admiral O. H. Dodson. The Spring convention will be held in April in Houston, and information about it may be obtained from A. I. Martin, 5609 Chaucer, Houston, Texas. — MRS. J. C. JENKINS, Sec.

The Vallejo Numismatic Society is meeting again at the Casa De Vallejo Hotel the first Wednesday evening monthly. George V. Morris of American Smelting and Refining Co., Selby, Calif., was guest speaker at the October 5 meeting. He brought an exhibit which he showed and explained as he talked on the smelting and refining of precious metals, which proved to be an interesting and informative subject. Five of our members had exhibits in the Vallejo Recreation Hobby Show, September 23-25, as follows: J. R. King, gold coins and jewelry made from them; Walter Gerth, odd and curious forms of money; Bill Cummings, commemorative coins; Jack Gray, half cents and large cents; Earl Hanson, Indian Head cents. We are now placing a copy of The Numismatist in the Vallejo Public Library each month. — M. L. KING, Sec.

The ladies of the Johnson City (N. Y.) Moose Club served dinner to the members and guests of Triple Cities Coin Club at its September 20 meeting. Q. David Bowers gave the lecture (in the dark, without notes) as the A.N.A. Colonial Coin slide set was shown, and made it a very interesting and instructive program. Many members' wives attended and now know more about how and why their husbands attend the Club meetings a couple of evenings each month.

At the October 4 meeting we saw the film "Trip Through the Denver Mint" and feel that we should thank Superintendent Mrs. Alma K. Schneider for making such a fine film available to us. It does a good job of explaining the operations of the mint, and should please any club which shows it. — News Bulletin.

Twenty-five collectors gathered at the Conoco Cafe October 2 to organize the Grand Island (Nebr.) Coin Club. Officers elected for the first year are: Elmer G. Nelson, president; W. G. Clayton, vice president; Cliff Nelson, secretary; C. E. Ivers, treasurer; and directors Mrs. Harry Rauert and H. J. Knickrehm. In place of the regular 328th meeting of Brooklyn Coin Club, a dinner was held October 5 in the Grenada Hotel's newly decorated ballroom. This was designated as Cecil H. Ryan night, and that well known numismatist was made an honorary member of our Club in recognition of his service as president and in many other capacities. Several speakers, some of them charter members of nearly thirty years standing, extolled Ryan, who responded with recollections of early days of the Club and wished it a bright and progressive future, and thanked the members for the signal honor bestowed upon him. — JAMES A. BROWN, Corr. Sec.

The October 4 meeting was held in the same place, with exhibits by the following: Coatsworth, type set of U. S. dollars; Kachmar, fourteen so-called dollars; Kennedy, English crowns from Henry VII to Elizabeth II; Hudson, collection of Civil War tokens, including several quite rare ones; Woodside, thirty-six Irish silver coins from Sihtric III to Elizabeth II. — ROBERT A. LLOYD, Sec.-Treas.

The 320th meeting of New Jersey Numismatic Society was held October 13 at the Military Park Hotel in Newark, with 27 in attendance. Dr. Julian Blanchard of New York City, an authority on paper money, was guest speaker. His interesting and stimulating talk touched on many unusual facets of paper money collecting, such as the private bank note companies which produced the pre-Civil War notes, the early engravers, the tie-in between the vignettes on early notes and stamps, and many other little known facts about paper money. Dr. Blanchard brought an exhibit of varied items from his outstanding collection, including a Mint note, Colonial and Continental notes, State Bank notes, matching die proofs of vignettes on stamps and paper money, etc. This talk and exhibit, together with fine exhibits by others, made this an outstanding meeting. — JAMES A. BROWN, Sec.-Treas.

Amid the elegance of the newly re-decorated ballroom of the Fort Steuben Hotel in Steubenville, the Ohio Valley Coin Association held its annual fall convention on October 9. Edmund F. Szyplski was general chairman, and Ray E. Campbell was co-chairman of a committee composed of Don Finnegan, Joseph Dragoun, Prosper DeVos, Jack McIlvain, J. Elmer Flowers, Lou Clemens and John Halischak. Display judges Homer Swanson, Robert Williams and R. M. Teis awarded the following prizes: Best-of-Show to Robert Bougher for his collection of unc. Flying Eagle and Indian cents, which also won first in United States coins; Roger Debnar's United States type coins won second in this division; Roger also took third with a display of U. S. cents. In the Miscellaneous category, Edmund Szyplski won first with a fascinating display of United States medals; Ray E. Campbell took second with his "The ABCs of Coins;" third went to Zack Wyatt for crowns of the world. First place in the currency division went to Donald Kleckner for his Colonial note display; second was won by Donald Finnegan with a large collection of foreign currency and occupation money. Lavone Debnar took first in the gold class with a type collection of U. S. gold coins and also first place in the Junior U. S. coin division with a display of unc. and proof coins. An interesting display of "Paper Americana" which included cancelled checks and receipts won first place in the Junior Miscellaneous class for Dave Pruchniewski. Sixteen dealers from three states reported brisk business at their bourse tables from among the four hundred persons who attended this successful convention — RAY E. CAMPBELL, President.

Seventy members and twenty-five guests attended the September 12 meeting of Hayward (Calif.) Area Coin Club and saw the A.N.A. slides of private gold coins, projected by "Dutch" Raeuber and described by George Squires. We found this set enjoyable and enlightening. The following members brought exhibits: Rennie Booth, Lew Vanderhoofven, Walt Morris, A. W. Olsen, Al. Sorensen and James Teeslink. In the auction, a small date cent 1960 proof set brought $28.00.

The September 26 meeting attracted over ninety who saw the movies of our June Coin Fair. Exhibitors were: Rennie Booth, Bob Borneman, Manuel Lawrence, Walt Morris and Doris Smith. A 1960 small date cent proof set brought $24 in the auction, and an unc. 1909-S VDB cent went for $100.

At the September 23 meeting of Regina (Sask.) Coin Club, Martin W. Watts reported on the C.N.A. convention in Sherbrooke, stating that one of the highlights was a visit to the home of J. D. Ferguson at Rock Island. Cecil Tannahill, C.N.A. past president, also reported on the convention, and commented on the increase in counterfeiting of rare coins. He advised collectors to have any rare coin checked by an expert before purchasing it. It was decided to change the Club year to the calendar year and hold elections at the January meeting.

The Club held a "Coinarama" on October 1 at the Hunt Club, with seventy-five attending from Regina, Medicine Hat, Swift Current, Saskatoon, and Plentwood and Flaxville, Montana. Prizes for the best displays were won by C. C. Tannahill, Roy Miller and P. L. Money. Seven dealers' bourse tables saw considerable activity. During his talk on Georgia gold, Jack presented aerial photographs of the area around Dahlonega, and pointed out where gold was discovered and where gold mines are still in operation. Those members who attended the A.N.A. Boston convention reported having a grand time. They picked up many tips that will help with our plans for the 1961 convention in Atlanta. — MRS. EDWIN HARRISON, Sec.

The Muncie (Ind.) Coin and Stamp Club has plans well formed for its fourth Annual Coin and Stamp Show to be held in January. Miss Klauss, a numismatist, history major and artist, pointed out the significance of the designs and historical background of the notes as A.N.A. slides were shown. This talk was supplemented by a fine collection of the notes exhibited by Dr. Charles F. Leich. His exhibit included the first "greenback" and many others of the notes included in the slide set. Fittingly, a copy of Friedberg's book Paper Money of the United States was given as an attendance prize to Eugene Nettles. Bill Pukall introduced a feature entitled "My Favorite Coin," and commented about the Hawaiian statehood medal. Doris Jean Myrick spoke about her most treasured coin dating back to 268 B.C. Junior members Mike and Stephen Reffert told of their interest in the 1909-S VDB cent and the 1938 Jefferson nickel. — MARIE T. GASS, Sec.

Having outgrown its present quarters, the Lorain County (Ohio) Coin Club agreed at its September meeting to move to the Woman's Club of Elyria, which offers a beautiful and spacious room for our growing membership which now numbers sixty-one. A nice variety of displays was provided by John Cherney, Wayne Alten, Jim Howard, Howard Foxman, Bill Nau and Merle Swanson. Our annual family picnic was held earlier in Kekics Grove in Avon Lake, and proved the popularity of this event which was enjoyed by a fine turnout of members and their families. Movies were taken by Walt Dobrinski for showing at a later meeting. — IRMA DOBRINSKI, Sec.

The Oregon Numismatic Society held a banquet in the Multnomah Hotel on October 3 to honor Samuel L. "Doc" Burnaugh, the 84-year-old dean of Pacific Northwest coin collectors. Doc, who started collecting when he was nine years old, was voted an honorary membership in the Society. The walls and tables of an ante room of the ballroom were covered with items from the Burnaugh collection. Although resembling the exhibit room of a regional convention, every item belonged to this one collector. An 1876 dime, minted in the year of his birth and acquired in 1885 as the first coin in his collection, occupied a prominent place. Mr. Burnaugh's collection contains scores of large size U. S. notes and hundreds of coins — many of which are rarities. He claims to have no idea of the collection's value, but keeps the bulk of it in a bank vault. Special security measures were taken during the banquet showing. The most enjoyable evening was closed with a humorous talk by William Fraser which he called "I Was a Teen-Age Collector, or Mamma Told Me to Collect Dimes Instead of Nickels Because They Make More Sense." — LESTER HALPIN

The Key City (Texas) Coin Club held its 48th meeting on October 6 in the Windsor Hotel, Abilene, with an attendance of thirty-two of whom three visitors made application for membership. Capt. Albert Mire described his visit to the Denver Mint during a recent tour of duty with the Air Force; Ed. Valenta reported on his visit to the San Angelo Club; and Louis Goodwin made a talk on the coins Maximilian, the French Emperor of Mexico. — LOUIS R. GOODWIN

The Utah Numismatic Society held its September 19 meeting with an attendance of forty, including seven visitors from the Ogden Coin Club. President Dean reported on our project to sell fifty $2 bills, autographed by U. S. Treasurer Ivy Baker Priest, at $2.50 each, the profits to be used to buy coin boards for the young folks in Crippled Children's Hospital. Hospital authorities declined the gifts, saying that coins become lost in bedding, etc. and suggested that we buy rock-and-roll records for them. The Board announced that Dave Sugden has been appointed to fill the term of the late Fred Zastrow. We all feel sure that he will make an excellent curator. Two collectors were elected to membership in the Club. — The Utah Mintmaster, C. E. CRANE, Editor

The Shidler (Texas) Coin Club held its 19th meeting on September 27 in the home of Frank and Mrs. Marshall. An interesting and instructive program was given by Jess Bennett on the subject "The American Dollar Bill." He told us how it is made and that the color and design has a practical as well as ornamental purpose. His talk convinced us that very few of us take the time to study the money we handle daily. Fine exhibits were furnished by Jess Bennett, Frank Marshall, Janice Van Camp, Frank Silva, Sandra Marshall, E. A. Julien, George Singleton, Jr., Arvie Silva and Bessie Nelson. Mrs. Marshall served lovely refreshments of cherry cake, peach pie and coffee and cokes. — BESSIE NELSON, Sec.-Treas.

ROSA AMERICANA 1723 Penny. Crowned rose. VF, ex-Wurtzbach	25.00
— 1733 Twopence, silver. Crosby Plate IV, 17 illustrates this as a copy but goes no further. The style is unlike any known coins. The likelihood of this being a pattern is considerable for there is a pattern twopence of 1733 with the head of George II left, and the reverse devices are similar, as well. The style is quite different, the coin sharp and in proof condition, with the frosty head. The edge is plain. The lack of information may have prompted Crosby to list this as a copy — but copy of what? Instinct indicates this to be a pattern of considerable rarity....	400.00

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year

Collectors Prefer America's First Family of Coin Albums The Library of Coins

Complete visibility and complete protection, the two most-wanted features of a coin album, are presented for the first time by The Library of Coins. Bound like books, handsome and compact, each Library of Coins volume displays and protects its coins between two sliding panels of clear, tough plastic. Each coin "porthole" has printed next to it full data on mint mark and quantity minted. Each volume contains a brief background story on the coins, giving both the novice and advanced collector helpful information, including a listing of the rare dates.

Measuring 8¼"x6¼", the volumes are low priced, sturdily manufactured, and permanently bound in a variety of identifying colors for the various denominations. Their compact size permits the storing of a large coin collection in very small space. Backbones are clearly gold stamped so that they are as readily identifiable as are books.

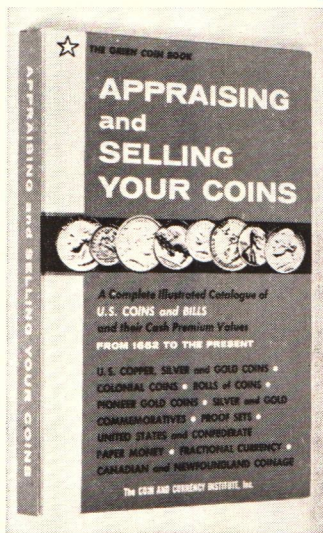

The Library of Coins is the first major innovation in high grade coin albums in more than 30 years. They were several years in development and were designed by numismatists to satisfy the needs and desires of numismatists. Write for a descriptive circular on the Library of Coins.

The Green Coin Book

"APPRAISING AND SELLING YOUR COINS"

a complete illustrated catalogue of U.S. coins and bills and their cash premium values, from 1652 to the present. And the complete coinage of Canada and Newfoundland, from 1858 to the present. Edited by Robert Friedberg.

Hard Cover, Handy Size (5" x 7½"), Fully Illustrated, 176 Pages, Price $1.75

Only in the Green Coin Book will you find the wealth of coin features being published together for the first time in one superbly produced and well designed book, such as you have grown to expect from the publishers. No other similar book, past or present, can offer the variety of valuable coin information presented here so expertly, so completely and yet so inexpensively.

You get not only a complete catalogue of the standard U. S. coins from 1793 to date in all metals, denominations, dates and mints, but also the following subjects, never before assembled into one volume:

- Rolls of Unc. coins from 1934 to date.
- U. S. Paper Money from 1861 to date.
- Colonial and early American coins.
- Confederate States Paper Money.
- Pioneer Gold Coins.
- Canadian and Newfoundland Coinage from 1858 to date.

The Green Coin Book is extremely well illustrated, coinage figures are given alongside each coin and all items show the average prices paid by dealers.

The publication of the Green Coin Book, "Appraising and Selling Your Coins," is a major event in coin literature. It satisfies an obvious need and does it very well. In this day of intense numismatic activity, no one should be without this book.

For only $1.75 you get a new standard work, crammed with so much important information, that you will consult it constantly. It is truly a unique book; it is authoritative, and for what it contains, it is an incredible bargain.

BYZANTINE SOLIDI FROM A RECENT DISCOVERY

The Gold Solidi offered below come from a recently discovered hoard. We feel that they constitute a unique group of the highest interest to the serious student of the Byzantine coinage. Warwick Wroth's, "Catalogue of the Imperial Byzantine Coins in the British Museum" (referred to as BMC), lists 19 varieties. Count Tolstoi in his "Byzantiskija Moneti," also found 19 varieties. There were only 13 varieties in the Rodolfo Ratto Collection, sold in 1930. The Ratto coins represented the largest private collection ever assembled in the field. We are fortunate in being able to offer 21 varieties, several of them not known to Tolstoi or to Wroth. It should also be pointed out that the coins of Justinus II from this hoard have PAVI instead of PAVC on the obverse and are varieties of the references indicated.

"Specializing in America's finest coins — buying, selling and numismatic research"

Considering the Sale of Your Collection?

Much careful thought was given during the years in which your collection was formed. The same careful consideration should be given to the sale of your collection. You want to realize the maximum price for your collection without undue difficulty.

During the past years we have handled many of the finest coins and collections to be offered for sale. These have ranged from small collections to some of the very largest. Included have been many of the greatest United States rarities.

Why have we been able to buy so many fine coins and collections? The willingness to pay a generous price is an important reason. We have always based our purchase offers on a first hand up-to-the-minute knowledge of coin market conditions. This, together with a large sales volume, has enabled us to operate on a smaller margin of profit.

Another factor of success in our coin buying is knowledge and experience. In addition to handling many collections of the regular United States series we have had extensive experience in the purchase and sale of the more diverse series . . . tokens, store cards, patterns, territorial gold, Colonials, etc.

A third important factor is financial responsibility. We have always given prompt payment without delay, in both purchase and auction arrangements. We invite you to check our professional and financial references.

When you decide to sell your numismatic holdings give us the opportunity to make an offer. There will be no obligation whatever on your part. If you prefer to sell by auction we offer expert, authoritative cataloging with proven results. We believe you, like many other collectors, will like the way we do business. May we look forward to the pleasure of hearing from you?

PROOF SETS

We attempt to sell proof sets at the lowest prices of any dealer. You can see from my buy and sell prices that our markup in proof sets is very nominal and fair. FOR CHRISTMAS ENJOYMENT . . .

"ONLY 24 PIECES OUTSTANDING" is the notation in Friedberg with regards to the $50.00, #151, 1869 Legal Tender Issue.

This statement, made by the United States Treasury Department, did not say there were 24 pieces available; 24 pieces yet known; 24 pieces in the hands of collectors. It said "24 pieces outstanding." No one will probably ever know just how many of the 24 were burned, lost or destroyed.

To our knowledge, the piece we offer is the only one ever available for outright sale in such an advertisement. The condition is lovely to behold. It would be called fine or better. It appears to be as brilliant as the one in the Friedberg illustration. (Even if a collector had only a fair note available, could he afford to be choosy under such conditions?)

Undoubtedly, the one who purchases this rare note will not only be smart and discriminating, but he will truly appreciate the "prize" he has captured. It will go into his collection, acquire fame along with his other treasures, and this rare note will probably never again be available to this generation.

Our price of $4,000 is based purely upon a nominal markup over our cost. This price is not a real indication of its true value or rarity. A figure of $7,000, or $10,000, is equally realistic and not at all out of order.

We believe in buying an item, and then selling it again, not in holding it for years and then selling it at an enormous profit, which undoubtedly the item is then worth. That is why we also include ourselves as "Numismatic Brokers."

Friend Collector — if you ever hope to acquire a collection of paper money that is outstanding and rare, then consider very seriously this 1869, $50.00 Legal Tender, and write or phone us soon.

ANOTHER NOTE OF MERIT: You serious collectors who have been trying to complete your sets of COIN notes of the 1890 and 1891 series, have looked long and far for this one. We are referring to Friedberg #375, the scarce 1891, $20.00 Marshall.

We offer one in extremely choice condition. The note is Brilliant. The paper is white and has a "snap" and is without folds. The term of "almost new" is not quite adequate. You must actually see it to behold its beauty. However, do not overlook its scarcity. We sold one two years ago in only fine condition for $800. It was then catalogued at $200. We believe that this one in almost uncirculated condition, at only $1250, is a superb value, and will not last long.

HERE IS AN APPARENT PRESTIGE NOTE AT LOW COST. We are referring to the $500.00 Federal Reserve Note (Fr. #1132) with head of John Marshall. The reverse is the beautiful part. The rich deep green color and the ornate design of "DeSoto Discovering the Mississippi" makes it truly an eye-catcher. These notes are not rare, but they are not too common either. We have one in very good condition for only $575, and one in extremely fine condition at $725. Where else can one have such fun, prestige, and numismatic value for only $75 or $225 premium?

THE 1896, 3-piece EDUCATIONAL SERIES, are considered the most beautiful of all U. S. notes. These 3 notes are scarce in choice condition, but not otherwise. Our set in new condition is an honest bargain at $450.

See next page for offering of Desirable U. S. Coins

... MAY WE SUGGEST

MUSEUM PIECE: Yes, the extra, extra, extra rare coin we are offering for sale TRULY BELONGS IN A MUSEUM.

WE MEAN THE 1870-S SILVER DOLLAR

Last August, when we purchased this coin, we felt that we had acquired the "Numismatic Find" of many a year. The Mint record, page 243, of the 14th Edition GUIDEBOOK, MAKES NO MENTION OF IT AT ALL. To our knowledge, we have never been able to find record of another one being thus sold, except from the "WORLD'S GREATEST COLLECTION OF UNITED STATES SILVER COINS," sold and catalogued under the direction of A. Kosoff and Abner Kreisberg at the Numismatic Gallery in New York, in January of 1945, from which we quote:

"Lot #271, 1870-S: Only once has this date ever been offered at public auction. About 29 years ago (1916) at one of Hesslein's Sales, an 1870-S sold for $1600.00. Mr. Hesslein announced later that he (then in 1916) had a bid of $2,000.00 limit for this coin. It is generally agreed that only six specimens exist; this would make the 1870-S several times as rare as the 1804 dollar which sold for $4250.00 in 1941. The coin is very fine; excessively rare."
END OF QUOTE.

ALSO IN 1945 in this sale

A 1796 Quarter, Purple Blue proof surface, brought $100. The 1876-CC 20-Cent, beautiful uncirculated, brought $1500. A 1796 Dime, uncirculated, with luster, brought $90. The 1870-S Silver Dollar, brought $1650.

NEED WE SAY MORE? ? ?

WE OFFER THE 1870-S SILVER DOLLAR FOR $7,500.

Today, when rarities are few, the science of coin collecting ever on the increase, and Numismatists of prominence, intelligence, and foresight are known and recognized, we would honestly say that this is one of the greatest offers of the last ten years.

SCARCE 1877 PROOF SET: Everyone knows how hard to obtain are the 1877 Indians, 3¢ Nickel, and 1877 Shield in PROOF. Here is the whole group, all denominations, 8 pieces, in PROOF. Do not pass this up at $1350.

1873 - ANOTHER SCARCE PROOF SET. This large set contains 14 pieces. It has the "With" and "Without" arrows varieties on the dimes, quarters, and halves. Not at all easy to obtain, and well worth the price of $1350.

1895 PROOF SET: Six pieces - $1200. Some day soon, the rare dollar will be worth this alone.

ROLLS ANYONE ? ? ? WE OFFER THE UNUSUAL !!!

1909-S V.D.B. (rub your eyes) Yes, you read right. We offer a roll, uncirculated for $4950.

1931-S A roll on sale for $1100.

A collection of rolls for investment? We offer a group of all denominations - not too many of any one date. If purchased separately, these would bring over $6,000.00. We will sell the lot at $4250. If interested, write for detailed list of coins continued therein.

THE GOLD CELESTION FOR 1961

A PROOF Super-Gem, $22.50

Minted by Nation of Celestial Space, James Thomas Mangan, Premier. Genuine mint gold, .900 fine, polished to highest mirror finish BEFORE being struck. 9/16ths inches in diameter. Weighs 34 grains (about 35% more gold than U. S. Gold Dollar.) Unbelievably resplendent. Same design as other Gold Celestions, but has a tiny "R," a second mint mark, behind girl's neck on obverse side. You have probably never seen a field as PROOF as this on any gold coin! Supply will probably be exhausted by this announcement. Feel safe in purchasing — not one Gold Celestion has ever been returned by a purchaser.

SPECIAL A few PROOF Gold Celestions for 1959 and 1960 still remain. Price $22.50 each. COMPLETE SET of 3 PROOF Gold Celestions, 1959, 1960 and 1961 — $58.00 if purchased at one time.

SPECIAL NOTICE

Am paying up to $900.00 for Commemorative Silver Type sets, up to $2350.00 for complete sets, $850.00 for Comm. Gold sets. By selling me your set, you will get $160.00 for Hawaii, $12.50 for Bridgeport, $33.00 for Isabella, etc. Highest prices also for single coins, part sets, accumulations, any amount. Why sell for less? When better prices are paid, we will pay them.

APPROVAL SHIPMENTS

The easiest way to build up a nice coin collection, at the best values, is with my Approval Shipments. Simply send me a list of the coins you need in any series Half Cents to Gold coins, Paper Money. Or, a list of the coins you already have, if shorter. You will receive a selection of coins on approval, on which you pay $10.00 or more a month, on coins you keep. I send more coins as you make payments. You can stop shipments anytime. If you have no special series in mind, here are a few suggestions that are very popular with my customers:

TYPE SET REGULAR U. S. COINS: One coin of each different design (not dates or mintmarks), Half Cents to Silver Dollars. $6.80 best quality album to hold all these coins, with first shipment, if you want.

TYPE SET U. S. GOLD COINS: Different designs Gold Dollars to $20. pieces. Deluxe plastic holder with first shipment to hold the set.

COMMEMORATIVE HALF DOLLARS: The number one series in U. S. coins. Due to my close margin between buying and selling prices, I believe I move more Comm. coins than any other dealer. After first shipment you can decide if you want to work on the Type set or Complete set. Best Quality albums in stock for either set. Price list on request.

FOREIGN SILVER DOLLARS: Collect one silver dollar for each different country, see how many you can get. Most are still very low in price. $6.00 album with first shipment, if you want.

LARGE U. S. PAPER MONEY: Type set of different designs, disregarding complicated signatures and minor varieties. Send me list of types you have, or send for my type set Check List, on which you can cross out types you have. Friedberg Paper Money Catalogs in stock, illustrating every note, $12.50.

FRACTIONAL CURRENCY: Type set of different designs, easy to collect. Each note housed in heavy plastic holder.

OTHER COINS: A large stock always, all kinds of Cents, 2¢ 3¢ 5¢ pieces, Dimes, Quarters, Half Dollars, Silver Dollars, gold coins, CANADIAN COINS, Foreign gold coins. Good to Proof conditions. Let me know what you need.

PURCHASES: Send collections or scarcer single pieces, by Registered Mail or Railway Express. I will figure them up, and submit best offer and check. Then will hold coins for your reply. If no deal, coins will be returned prepaid. Cannot use very common circulated coins.

A VERY SOUND INVESTMENT

- (1) Roll (20) 1880-CC$225.00
(1) Roll (20) 1885-CC$225.00
Carson City Morgan Dollars
All Strictly Uncirculated

The 1885 Carson City Dollar with a mintage of only 228,000 is the fourth smallest mintage of all Silver Dollars from 1878 to 1935. To own one of these in strictly brilliant uncirculated condition for only $15.00 is one of the scarce coins all collectors should have; and to own a roll of 20 with an investment of only $225.00 should not be overlooked by all investment minded collectors.

For comparison the 1889-CC Dollar, total mintage of 350,000, is now selling for $150.00 each; the 1892-CC Dollar, mintage over one million is selling for more than $20.00 each; and the 1879-CC Dollar, with 756,000, has a price tag of about $85.00.

My Special Price for the set of six 1880 to 1885 is $59.50. 1880-1881-1882-1883-1884-1885.

Please keep in mind that all these Dollars are strictly Brilliant Uncirculated Coins and the ten different dates listed below are certainly well behind the spectacular rise in price of most desirable coins in the past year.

Useful for cleaning all kinds of coins, but particularly adapted to cleaning coins of copper or nickel.

EASY TO USE AND ECONOMICAL!
FAST ACTION — IT ACTUALLY CLEANS IN SECONDS!

Does not add shine, but brings out natural color, including original brilliance if it is still there under tarnish or coating. Dull or dark uncirculated coins become brilliant uncirculated coins in seconds.

This result of years of experiment can be safely used on valuable coins to improve their appearance and increase their value.

On sale in many leading stores in 4-oz. bottles, with full directions, at $1.00.

If your dealer does not yet have it, send us $1.00 for 3-oz. bottle (enough to clean hundreds of coins) carefully packed and postpaid to any address in the United States or Canada.

SPECIAL OFFER TO DEALERS
Send $4.00 for six 4-oz. bottles of "CCC," postpaid.

DEALERS: We don't fool around with your orders for coin and stamp supplies. They are shipped PROMPTLY after receipt of order — usually go out the same day received. This means money to you — not having to be temporarily out of fast selling merchandise too long. Consider, too, that we are centrally located and maintain a comprehensive stock in your favorite standard lines such as TULCO PLASTIC HOLDERS, WHITMAN, NATIONAL, MEGHRIG, FLOYD'S, MINKUS, LETOCRAFT, K & H, HARCO, and many others. We will allow the full dealer discount to anyone whose orders net $25.00 or more (coins excluded). Postage and insurance extra.

BUYING UNCIRCULATED ROLLS, BAGS, AND PROOF SETS — PAYING TOP PRICES. WE respectfully invite your inquiries both as to buying or selling the above. It seems impossible to advertise prices with any degree of accuracy in a market that changes rapidly from day to day. Tell us what you have to sell or what you want to buy — we'll do some business.

MODERN FOREIGN COINS

The pioneering stage is over in foreign coins, with attractive catalogs available, many dealers with good stocks, and more and more collectors switching toward the field where there is more FUN.

Some start with older issues and work toward the present. Others start with new and recent issues, and work backward in their specialty.

No matter where you start — the START is the thing, and the sooner you start, the sooner you can begin to enjoy yourself in the fascinating field of foreign coins.

My large price lists of MODERN FOREIGN COINS will help you start right.
